Information for the Applicant

The question of becoming a Freemason is a matter for very serious consideration and, since you have expressed a desire to be a member, we deem it advisable that you should be informed on certain points which may affect your decision to apply.

In all ages Freemasonry has insisted that men should come to its doors unsolicited and entirely of their own free will and accord. Moreover, those joining in hope of selfish personal gain will be bitterly disappointed.

Patriotism and undivided loyalty to one's country are essential qualifications of a Freemason.

Freemasonry has for its foundation the great basic principles of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. No Atheist can be made a Mason.

Freemasonry is not in any way an insurance society nor does it pay benefits in case of sickness or death. IN a correct and broad sense it is a charitable association, but it only extends such charity as it feels willing and able to grant, not as a matter of right to the recipient, but in its desire to do good and exemplify its moral teachings. The yearly dues are entirely inadequate to permit other than temporary assistance to a member or his family in case of need.

The universal custom requires that, through oral instruction, certain of the work is to be memorized after each degree, and before a candidate is advanced.

Every member is expected to pay promptly the annual dues fixed by this Lodge.
